TO : Deputy Chief, Real Estate and Construction Division, OL DATE: 14 DEC 1970

FROM : Chief, Real Estate Branch, RECD/OL

SUBJECT: Possible Sale of Small Portion of [] Purchased
[] on 20 July 1970

25X1

REF: Memo dtd 25 Nov 70 to DDS/fm [] same subject

25X1A

1. The Director of Logistics concurrence in the proposed subject sale as indicated in paragraph 5 of the referenced memorandum is recommended with the following stipulations which should be made a part of the concurrence:

a. The sale is for one (1) acre and not to include the additional 0.2 of an acre mentioned in paragraph 2 of the reference.

b. The purchaser shall also pay the cost for permanent set-in-concrete type markers appropriately defining the new boundary.

c. The well house, which is the southernmost of the two indicated, and sufficient land to provide adequate access thereto, shall be retained by the government.

through our property (SK).

2. With respect to item (c) above, Mr. [] advised that this well house and pump appears to be in serviceable condition and apparently was used until recently to provide water to the main residence. The well is approximately 150 feet deep and with the pump represents an asset worth about $1200. If water ever becomes scarce it could be extremely useful. The other, northernmost well is caved in, is in disrepair and apparently worthless.
